Superintendent of Schools

May 27, 2021

Dear Piscataway Families:

At the end of the school day tomorrow, we begin our Memorial Day weekend break. I hope all of our families have a chance to enjoy some time off, and that our students get the rest they need in order to accomplish their academic goals for the remainder of the school year.

Please review the June In-Person Learning Calendar for reminders of important dates:

- June 1 – schools are closed for the extended Memorial Day weekend
- June 8 – schools and district offices will be all-remote as Election Day polling takes place in our buildings.
- June 17 – early dismissal and the last day of the 2020-2021 school year.

Also, please keep in mind that tomorrow, Friday, May 28, teachers will take part in in-service learning, and there will be no afternoon office hours on this day.

Meal Distribution

For families who take advantage of our Meal Distribution Program, please note that there will be no meal pick-up on Memorial Day, Monday, May 31. Instead, meal pick-up this afternoon, Thursday, May 27, will include meals for seven days. Meal distribution will resume its regular twice per week rotation on Thursday, June 3.

Enjoy this long weekend!

Very sincerely,

Dr. Frank Ranelli
