

Why are there so many assessments?

Assessments such as PARCC are mandated by the State of New Jersey and Piscataway must administer these assessments during the time window set by the state. The District minimizes the instructional impact as much as possible.